Pennsylvania Economic Association (PEA) Announces

Best Undergraduate Paper Contest

With the winner to be announced at the Annual Conference of the Pennsylvania Economic Association
Gannon University—Erie, Pennsylvania
May 29 – 30, 2020

To encourage undergraduate interest in all fields of economics, the Board of Directors of the Pennsylvania Economic Association cordially invites undergraduate students to enter the Pennsylvania Economic Association Best Undergraduate Paper Contest at Gannon University this May. The winning student author(s)1 will receive:

- A $300 award (first place), $200 (second place) and $100 (third place)
- A commemorative plaque for the first place and certificates for the second and third places
- Complimentary publication of the first place paper in the Pennsylvania Economic Review
- Picture of the winning student(s) with the PEA President posted on the PEA website

To enter a paper into the contest, please send the following by 4:00 pm on Monday, May 4, 2020:

- A cover letter as an email attachment to Dr. Orhan Kara (okara@wcupa.edu)
- Student’s name, class/year, and also full contact information of the faculty sponsor2
- Your complete paper (with a minimum of 7 pages and a maximum of 25 pages) including the abstract must be submitted electronically (http://www.econpea.org/conf/2020Gannon/StudentPaperContest.htm)

Eligibility

- Author(s) must be an undergraduate student as of Spring 2020 (December 2019 and May 2020 graduates are also eligible).
- Students must also register for the conference and must present their papers at the conference.
- No faculty–student co-authored submissions will be accepted.
- Student papers must meet the basic requirements of the judging rubric available on the PEA website.

All manuscripts must be submitted according to the APA guidelines (http://www.apastyle.org/).

As part of the selection process, papers will be reviewed by a panel consisting of five economist judges representing educational and research institutions. Reviewers assigned to each paper will be external to the student’s institution and will follow the same scoring rubric.

All students will present their papers on Friday, May 29, 2020, in dedicated session(s) of the Annual Conference of the Pennsylvania Economic Association, at Gannon University. The winning paper(s) will be announced at the conference luncheon on Friday, May 29, 2020.

---

(1) Co-authors will split the monetary prize.
(2) Faculty should encourage their students’ participation early in the spring semester.